Hear Ye, Hear Ye!

Just to give you a sneak peak at some of next years tentative Activity plans (in case you want to bring anything from home back to Sunshine RV Resort next season...) Another reminder, all of our functions are for couples and singles! We want everyone to have fun!!

- A "1940 USO Party" (November)
-A "A night at Ceasars Palace" , you can dress like a Gangsta or take this opportunity to wear your fancy duds (of course, since we are in Florida, casual dress is always acceptable). (New Years Eve)
-"Girls Pajama and House Shoe Party" (January)
-"Roaring 20s Speak-Easy Party" (February)
-"Hobo Stew cooked outside over a fire along with a "trashy cart" parade & contest" (March)
-For the first coffee of each month, we will be adding "Crazy Hat Day", "Ugly Sweater Day", "Silly Shoes", "Loud Tie Day" & "Wear a Wig &/or Incognito Day" where anyone who chooses can participate. Prizes will be awarded.

So, dig through your stuff, go shopping at Thrift stores or garage sales, bring your items and come prepared to have some FUN!

What: 1899 Country Fair

When: Saturday, 3-14 @ 11:00-?

Where: Behind the Club House in the grassy area

A good ole' fashion Country Fair with a Hog Callin' Contest, Pickle Spitten' Contest, Cake Walk, Corn Hole and Ring Toss Games. Ladies, feel free to wear your long skirts, aprons, bonnets/straw hats. Gents, wear your bib overalls, jeans, straw hats..... Ya'll get the picture? (Of course, regular attire is always okay.) Each person is to bring their own picnic lunch to enjoy at the picnic tables.

Listen to some good old fashion tunes (compliments of Gary Rifkin) as you stroll the grounds playing outdoor games, and shop the Country Market where crafters and artisans, all from our Park, will be displaying their wares for sale and have demonstrations. See flyers posted throughout the Park for details or see Donna or Shannon in the Activities office Mon, Tue, Thur or Fri from 10:00-2:00.
